The Divers Bell Bed & Breakfast is – as its very apt name suggests – cool, calm and a great place to decompress and destress. This is a B&B without any fussy pretensions, the sort of place where you feel totally at home from the moment you walk in the door.

The first thing you'll notice is the open-air lounge and dining courtyard with its expansive roof and views out over luxuriant tropical gardens. It's a great place to plan your day or relax after a Broome outing (there is also another lounge). There are just two guest rooms here, which are stylishly appointed and open onto the courtyard. The Roebuck King Room takes its name from Broome's famous bay and offers a bedroom and lounge with a lush indoor garden, spa and a superb ensuite. The Villaret Queen Room is a cosy space with a nearby bathroom.

Divers Bell is well located in Broome and its hosts, Ari and Shaun, are worldly charmers (their backgrounds are in pearling and luxury super yachts). They are warm and always available to sensibly assist with tours and advice.

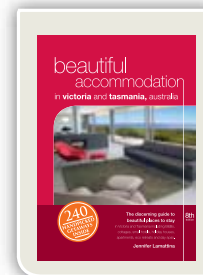

Location: 2½ hour flight northeast of Perth. Map 13. RA 88 G4.
Facilities: Two guest rooms: one with king bed, lounge, indoor garden and spa ensuite and one with queen bed and bathroom nearby. Both with TV, DVD, refrigerator, RC AC, fans. Indoor lounge (TV, DVD, CD), full kitchen. Outdoor undercover courtyard (dining, BBQ). Wireless Internet, laundry. Continental breakfast served.
